

Canada: John J. Geib Professional Corporation

Firm profile

The Calgary accounting practice of John J. Geib Professional Corporation is a full service audit firm. Partner and lead practitioner John has been in public practice for over four decades, starting his firm in 1981 and subsequently purchasing the accounting firm established by his father, Otto J. Geib Chartered Accountant, in 1987. The firm has been in Calgary since the 1960's and has a third generation ready to continue the tradition. A team of 15 professionals provide personalised support to a variety of different sized companies and a wide variety of clients, ranging from small business to not-for-profits to public corporations.

Our services range from assurance to tax and advisory services. We are located in Canada's fastest growing major city and our expanding client base reflects this progression. Our practice is fully bilingual, offering accounting services in French and English.
