

Canada: Geib & Company Professional Corporation

Firm Profile

Geib and Company Chartered Professional Accountants are a 20-person full service accounting firm who provide services to small publicly traded companies, medium and small locally based not-for-profit organizations and all forms of privately-owned enterprises. The firm also provides expatriate US tax services and a full range of estate and trust tax planning. Our team includes tax specialists who have completed the CPA in-depth tax program. This specialized tax team offers solutions to a wide variety of complex tax planning situations.

The firm's success is based on years of experience and an understanding of the problems and challenges our clients face in a business world that has become increasingly complex. We are dedicated to providing common sense solutions to assist clients today, and endeavour to provide strategies to facilitate long term stability.

Ranking

Calgary has no official rating table for the accountancy sector; however, we are one of only 17 firms in Calgary registered with the Canadian Public Accountability Board.
